Program Overview

The Department of Political Science offers a Bachelor of Arts degree in political science. Each student, upon declaring a major in political science, will be assigned to a faculty advisor to assist the student in course planning and considering their path after graduation. The Department encourages students to develop broad substantive knowledge and methodological skills, and to take courses from across the three major subfields of Comparative Politics, International Relations, and US Politics. We recommend, but do not require, that students take our Research Methods seminar. The Department has no pre-requisite course requirements.
