

PSYCHOLOGY, MINOR

Program Overview

The minor in Psychology is not intended for someone interested in pursuing an advanced degree in psychology but, rather, may be interested in the field as part of their work in another discipline (e.g., marketing, economics, nursing, law, and many, many others).

Undergraduate Policies

For undergraduate policies and procedures, please review the Office of Undergraduate Studies section of the General Bulletin.

Program Requirements

Students who wish to minor in psychology must take General Psychology I (PSCL 101), plus a minimum of four other PSCL courses, for a total of 15 hours. Students choose these courses in collaboration with their advisor. Practica and independent study are available, but may not be used to satisfy the minor requirement. Students must take at least 50% of their PSCL courses at CWRU.
