

SOCIOLOGY, MINOR

Program Overview

Sociology is a unique means of understanding the social structures and social forces that affect individuals and their relationships with one another and their community. Sociology minor course work offers excellent preparation to students majoring in other social and behavioral sciences, natural sciences, or humanities.

Undergraduate Policies

For undergraduate policies and procedures, please review the Undergraduate Academics section of the General Bulletin.

Program Requirements

The minor consists of 15 credit hours in sociology, including:

Code	Title	Hours
Required Courses:
SOCI 101	Introduction to Sociology	3
SOCI 300	Modern Sociological Thought	3
Electives ^a		9
Total Hours		15

a At least two of the electives must be at the 300-level.