

SOCIOLOGY, MINOR

Program Overview

Sociology is a unique for understanding the social structure and social forces that affect individuals and their relationships with one another and their community. Sociology minor course work offers excellent preparation to students majoring in other social and behavioral sciences, natural sciences, or humanities.

Undergraduate Policies

For undergraduate policies and procedures, please review the Office of Undergraduate Studies section of the General Bulletin.

Program Requirements

The minor consists of 15 credit hours in sociology, including:

Code	Title	Hours
SOCI 101	Introduction to Sociology	3
SOCI 300	Modern Sociological Thought	3
Three additional electives, at least two of which must be 300-level courses		9
Total Hours		15