

PRACTICUM (PRAC)

---

PRAC 1. Practicum I. 0 Unit.

A practicum is a workplace experience, the primary goal of which is the intellectual, personal and professional growth of the student. It occurs under the supervision of a mentor in the workplace who is committed to seeing that it is an educational experience as well as a work venture. It requires skills appropriate to the student's year in college and provides the student with new skill, insights and experiences that are transferable back to the academic setting and/or a future position in the workplace. May include requirements preparatory to undertaking the workplace assignment as well as a final project to be completed by the end of the semester in which the workplace experience occurs. Counts as a Local & Global Engagement course.

PRAC 10. PT Practicum. 0 Unit.

A practicum is a workplace experience, the primary goal which is the intellectual, personal, and professional growth of the student. It occurs under the supervision of a mentor in the workplace who is committed to seeing that it is an educational experience as well as a work venture. It requires skills appropriate to the student's year in college and provides the student with new skill, insights, and experiences that are transferable back to the academic setting and/or future position in the workplace. May include requirements preparatory to undertaking the workplace assignment as well as a final project to be completed by the end of the semester in which the workplace experience occurs. Recommended Preparation: Completion of two semesters of coursework at CWRU. Counts as a Local & Global Engagement course.

PRAC 11. Part Time Practicum Program - Specialized Programs. 0 Unit.

A practicum is a workplace experience, the primary goal of which is the intellectual, personal, and professional growth of the student. It occurs under the supervision of a mentor in the workplace who is committed to seeing that it is an educational experience as well as a work venture. It requires skills appropriate to the student's year in college and provides the student with new skills, insights, and experiences that are transferable back to the academic setting and/or future position in the workplace. May include requirements preparatory to undertaking the workplace assignment as well as a final project to be completed by the end of the semester in which the workplace experience occurs. The specialized programs practicum course is specifically designed for students enrolling in practicum as a specialized program through the career center or their academic department. Recommended Preparation: Completion of two semesters of coursework at CWRU. Counts as a Local & Global Engagement course.

PRAC 2. Practicum II. 0 Unit.

A practicum is a workplace experience, the primary goal of which is the intellectual, personal and professional growth of the student. It occurs under the supervision of a mentor in the workplace who is committed to seeing that it is an educational experience as well as a work venture. It requires skills appropriate to the student's year in college and provides the student with new skill, insights and experiences that are transferable back to the academic setting and/or a future position in the workplace. May include requirements preparatory to undertaking the workplace assignment as well as a final project to be completed by the end of the semester in which the workplace experience occurs. Must have at least one intervening semester in residence after PRAC 001. Prereq: Junior standing.

PRAC 3. Practicum III. 0 Unit.

A practicum is a workplace experience, the primary goal of which is the intellectual, personal and professional growth of the student. It occurs under the supervision of a mentor in the workplace who is committed to seeing that it is an educational experience as well as a work venture. It requires skills appropriate to the student's year in college and provides the student with new skill, insights and experiences that are transferable back to the academic setting and/or a future position in the workplace. May include requirements preparatory to undertaking the workplace assignment as well as a final project to be completed by the end of the semester in which the workplace experience occurs. Prereq: Junior Standing (completion of 60 hours).

PRAC 4. Practicum - Specialized Programs. 0 Unit.

A practicum is a workplace experience, the primary goal of which is the intellectual, personal and professional growth of the student. It occurs under the supervision of a mentor in the workplace who is committed to seeing that it is an educational experience as well as a work venture. It requires skills appropriate to the student's year in college and provides the student with new skill, insights and experiences that are transferable back to the academic setting and/or a future position in the workplace. May include requirements preparatory to undertaking the workplace assignment as well as a final project to be completed by the end of the semester in which the workplace experience occurs. The specialized programs practicum course is specifically designed for students enrolling in practicum as a part of a specialized program through the career center or their academic department. Counts as a Local & Global Engagement course.