

LAW, JD/MEDICINE, MD

Degree: Juris Doctor (JD)
Juris Doctor (JD) Program Information

Degree: Doctor of Medicine (MD)
Medicine (MD) Program Information

Program Overview

The School of Law and School of Medicine partner to offer a dual degree for the Juris Doctor and Doctor of Medicine degrees.

Program Requirements

The School of Law and the School of Medicine offer a specialized dual degree program that allows a student to complete both degrees in six years. Law students enrolled in the dual JD/MD degree program may earn up to 12 credit hours toward the JD in graduate level MD courses. A student who begins at the law school spends two years studying law, then four years studying medicine. Alternatively, a student may spend the first two years and the last two years at the School of Medicine, and the two middle years at the School of Law.
