LAW, JD (ONLINE)

Degree: Juris Doctor (JD)

Case Western Reserve is developing an online JD program, allowing students to enroll on a part-time basis, earning a JD degree after 5 years of enrollment. We anticipate our first enrollment into the online JD program in Fall 2024, pending approval from the American Bar Association.

Our program will allow for remote classroom experiences and the opportunity for numerous short in-person residencies throughout the program.

For more information about the online program, please visit the School of Law JD Admission webpage.

Program Requirements
The JD degree requires successful completion of 88 credit hours, of which 44 credit hours are in specified required courses, at least 2 credit hours in the writing of a substantial research paper, at least 12 credit hours of experiential learning experiences (including a required capstone experience completed during the final year) and at least 34 credit hours of electives.
